World Judo Tour

JUDO

GRAND PRIX
Qingdao, 2012

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

We were used to finish the year with the Judo Grand Prix in Qingdao. In 2012, this major event in our calendar, will slightly precede the Judo Grand Slam Tokyo 2012. The proximity (in geography and in time) of the two competitions is one important aspect that gives the opportunity to our best judoka to participate in the two events.

The Chinese Judo Association has a real expertise in organizing international events. We can rely on its professionalism, for the greater benefit of all. Thank you to all our Chinese friends.

The end of 2012 represents an important milestone for our World Judo Tour, since it puts a final end to the Olympic cycle that ended in triumph at the London Games. From 2013, we will start a 'new' World Judo Tour, which will be bigger and stronger.

We are once again happy to welcome you in Qingdao, China. We wish you good luck in the respect of our mutual values.

WU Qi
President
Chinese Judo
Association

We feel very glad to announce that 2012 Qingdao Judo Grand Prix will be held from November 24 till 25 that to be connected by international training camp from November 26 till 28. We would like to cordially invite you and your team to participate in this official IJF event of 100,000USD Prize money.

After 12 years of development with the great concern of IJF, JUA and World Judo Family, the international Judo tournament and relevant Judo activities in Qingdao have been upgraded as the professional IJF event and the World Judo Grand Prix. We believe that this event will not only improve Chinese Judo level, increase the friendship between all countries (regions) and communities, but also provide a better platform for the Judokas from around the world to accumulate experience in international competition and training camp, as well as improve their Judo techniques.

Please kindly refer to the attachment of the Outline and Entry Forms for your kind reference. I am looking forward to welcoming you and your team in Qingdao, China.
