JUDO

Chinggis Khan GRAND PRIX
Ulaanbaatar, 2014

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The second edition of the Ulaanbaatar Grand Prix will take place from 4-6 July as the Rio 2016 Olympic qualification phase starts to gather momentum following its opening at the Havana Grand Prix in June.

The Mongolian Judo Association were magnificent hosts last year as they welcomed the judo family in their country, into their capital city and into their hearts.

Judo is one of Mongolia's leading sports and there will undoubtedly be great domestic and international interest in the event which will be followed a week later by the Tyumen Grand Slam in Russia.

Mongolia will provide a great theatre for judo and their own Olympic and world medallists will be out in force.

I am sure that the organisers and the International Judo Federation staff can build on the success of last year's event and continue to develop the visibility and ability of Mongolian Judo.

I wish good luck to the Association and to all the volunteers. I hope the athletes and teams will conduct themselves in the competitive and respectful manner which judo prides itself on and I wish them the best of luck.

Khaltmaa
