World Judo Tour

JUDO

GRAND SLAM
Tyumen, 2014

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The IJF World Judo Tour has returned to Russia for the third Grand Slam of the year. Tyumen is the new location for Russia's annual Judo Grand Slam after many successful editions in Moscow.

The Tyumen region held the first ECCO Team Challenge in January and previously held the 2011 Openweight Championships so they have vast experience and expertise in hosting major judo competitions.

Following Grand Slams in Paris and Baku, the third Grand Slam in Tyumen is the most important event of the year so far as it is the biggest event since the Rio 2016 Olympic qualification phase started in May.

The stars of the World Judo Tour will also be thinking about their imminent return to Russia in August for the World Championships in Chelyabinsk.

I am always assured by the Russian Judo Federation's competence and passion for our sport and its values. This event will project the Tyumen region to a new level and what is already a strong judo area has the scope to become a renowned international judo hub.

I wish good luck to all the judoka, coaches and the staff and referees. The IJF team will be at your disposal throughout the event and I wish you all a pleasant stay in Tyumen.

Mr. Vasily Anisimov
President of Russian Judo
Federation

Dear Friends,

I am glad to welcome you in Russia, Tyumen, on the first Grand Slam in the history of this city. Tyumen is well-known to all judo fans all round the world: Tyumen was the host city of the European Championships U 23 and Open World Championships, elite World Masters tournament and the first world's edition of "Judo ECCO International Hero Challenge Europe VS Asia". Tyumen people love and understand judo: it is one of the most sporting city of our country.

We are glad, that "Grand Slam tournament" will be held here in the next 3 years with participation of the world's elite judoka.

With no doubt, that Tyumen's tournament will come to the judo history as one of the best events and become an excellent impact for the next generation of the Russians to do judo. I hope that all participants and guests will be delighted with the high quality organizational level of the competitions in Tyumen and they will get excellent impressions of this hospitable Russian city.

I would like to thank the International Judo Federation and personally the IJF President Mr. Marius Vizer for trust rendered to Tyumen city and to Russia. I wish all the participants success, exciting fights and strong health!
