It is a real pleasure for the International Judo Federation, to welcome the judo family to Guadalajara, Mexico, in Central America on the occasion of the World Judo Masters 2016.

Guadalajara has made great progress in their capacity to deliver world-class events having staged the Junior World Championships in Agadir in 2010 and a host of continental events which have attracted a great number of international judoka. The World Judo Masters event, which was last staged in Rabat, Morocco in 2015, is a special competition as it is a meeting ground for the top 16 judoka on the World Ranking List in each weight category.
