BUDAPEST GRAND PRIX 2016 Hungary

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

 @MariusVizer

The IJF World Judo Tour's final Grand Prix in Europe before the Rio 2016 Olympic Games is appropriately being held in the IJF Presidential Office city of Budapest, Hungary.

Budapest is also a perfect location for this summer event because the city will host the World Championships 2017.

The Olympic qualification period will not be a factor in Budapest but will be one of last opportunities for judoka to test themselves in a competition environment before Rio 2016.

The Hungarian Judo Association is among the most active and most dynamic and we will see that again at the Budapest Grand Prix which offers invaluable experience for the organisers as they continue to plan and prepare for the World Championships next year.

I also wish good luck to the organising team and all the coaches, athletes, officials and volunteers.

25-26 June

Dr. László Tóth
President
Hungarian Judo
Association

Dear Judo Friends,

Let me welcome everyone to the Budapest Grand Prix on behalf of the Hungarian Judo Association. This is the third Grand Prix in Budapest and one of the lasts before the Olympic Games.

We expect several top athletes and numerous qualified judokas for Rio 2016 OG.

We are more than happy to be given the opportunity to organize the World Championships in 2017! I hope, we will meet with you next year at this event!

Due to our successes a Sports Developing Program has started in 2013 between the Hungarian Government and the Hungarian Judo Association, bearing a significant support to our sport. I hope that all of the participants and visitors will be able to notice the development of the Hungarian judo year after year at the Budapest Grand Prix.

I wish a memorable and very spectacular competition and all the best to the participants!
