Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

 @MariusVizer

It is an honour for me and the International Judo Federation to welcome you all to Japan, the homeland of judo, on the occasion of the season-ending Tokyo Grand Slam 2016.

We are very pleased to welcome judoka, coaches, officials, referees and the entire judo family to Japan for our annual and final Grand Slam of the year which is an extra special event on the calendar for all judoka and judo enthusiasts.

After Grand Slam events in Baku, Paris, Tyumen, and Abu Dhabi, either side of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, the IJF World Judo Tour now comes to a close for the year with the final IJF competition in a fantastic 2016 season. Work is well underway towards the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games and the IJF and All Japan Judo Federation have a rich collaboration and working relationship to maximise the visibility and development of our sport towards next the Olympiad.

I would like to thank the All Japan Judo Federation, for preserving and promoting the values of our sport and ideals of Shihan Kano Jigoro. I wish everyone a successful visit to Japan and a good New Year.

2-4 December

Mr. Shoji
MUNEOKA
President of the
All Japan Judo
Federation

Dear distinguished guests from the IJF and the Judo family from across the globe, it is our pleasure to welcome you again to the Tokyo Metropolitan Gymnasium for the 2016 Grand Slam Tokyo.

This prestigious tournament will be competed amongst the best Judokas in the world including participants achieving great success at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Olympics. This year, we expect to see heated matches which would recall us the excitement of the memorable games in Rio.

Before Judo became recognized as an Olympic sport, Professor Jigoro Kano, Judo's founding father, devoted himself to the principle of "human education" through one's lifelong practice of Judo, fostering those who honed Judo's fundamental values of confidence, etiquette, and dignity. In order to uphold his work, our federation has been promoting the "Judo MIND Project" which stands for the key principles of Manners, Independence, Nobility and Dignity.

Judo's global reach, popularity and its competitive level are improving year after year. Nevertheless, I hereby would like to ask all the Judokas and coaches to support our movement and keep on working with Professor Jigoro Kano's principle of "human education" through the practice of Judo.

Victory or defeat is a fruit which we obtain from our training to improve "Shin, Gi, Tai" (mind, technique, and physical strength) and therefore, I expect you not to be arrogant after victory nor to be discouraged by defeat, but to have respect for your opponent. I wish that all participants who represents the worldwide Judo family, would fully demonstrate the results of their daily efforts, and inspire fans from all over the world.

Moreover, I sincerely hope that you nurture close friendships here in Tokyo, the host city of the 2020 Olympiad, and that your stay would be a memorable one.

Last but not the least, I would like to express my cordial gratitude towards all who contributed to the success of this prestigious event.
