TOKYO GRAND SLAM 2017 Japan

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo
Federation

 @MariusVizer

It is an honour for the International Judo Federation to welcome you all to Japan on the occasion of the Tokyo Grand Slam 2017.

We are very pleased to welcome, judoka, coaches, officials, referees and the entire judo family to Japan for our final Grand Slam of the year which is an extra special event on the calendar for all judoka and judo enthusiasts as the sport goes home.

After Grand Slam events in Baku, Paris, Ekaterinburg, and Abu Dhabi, the IJF World Judo Tour will hold its traditional last Grand Slam of the year in Tokyo. The Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games is fast approaching and the IJF and All Japan Judo Federation have a rich collaboration and are working closely with the organising committee to make sure that judo is propelled to a new level in its homeland and around the world.

I would like to thank the All Japan Judo Federation and the Kodokan Judo Institute, for preserving and promoting the values of our sport and ideals of Shihan Kano Jigoro. I also congratulate the Japanese team for their excellent results at the Rio 2016 Olympics and the 2017 Suzuki World Judo Championships.

I wish everyone a successful visit to Japan.

2-3 December

Mr. YAMASHITA
Yasahiro
President
All Japan Judo
Federation

Dear distinguished guests from the IJF and the Judo family from across the globe, it is our pleasure to welcome you again to the Tokyo Metropolitan Gymnasium for the 2017 Grand Slam Tokyo. This year the tournament will be held over the course of two days. Each day, participating judokas will contend for seven titles.

This prestigious tournament will be competed amongst the best Judokas in the world including participants achieving great success at the 2017 Budapest World Championships. We can expect many thrilling match ups between veterans who competed at the Rio de Janeiro Olympic Games and young judokas making their debut. I wish all judoka's participating in this tournament further develop their skills towards the 2019 Tokyo World Championships and 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games.

Before Judo became recognized as an Olympic sport, Professor Jigoro Kano, Judo's founding father, devoted himself to the principle of "human education" through one's lifelong practice of Judo, fostering those who honed Judo's fundamental values of confidence, etiquette, and dignity. In order to uphold his work, the All Japan Judo Federation has been promoting the "Judo MIND Project" which stands for the key principles of Manners, Independence, Nobility and Dignity. I sincerely hope that these fundamental values of Judo will spread around the world, through the Judo family here, attending this event.

I wish that all judoka who represents the worldwide Judo family, fully demonstrate the results of their daily efforts, and inspire fans from all over the world. I expect you not to be arrogant after victory nor to be discouraged by defeat, but to have respect for your opponent and always have in heart the values of dignity and respect when on the tatami.

Moreover, I sincerely hope that you nurture close friendships here in Tokyo, the host city of the 2020 Olympiad, and that your stay would be a memorable one.

Last but not the least, I would like to express my cordial gratitude towards all who contributed to the success of this prestigious event.
