VETERAN EUROPEAN JUDO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Glasgow 2018 - United Kingdom

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

On behalf of the European Judo Union I cordially welcome participants and guests to the European Championships Veterans here in Glasgow, Great Britain.

I would like to express my appreciation to the organizers for taking the responsibility of holding this important event. I am confident that this tournament will be staged at a highly professional level.

This tournament is a great opportunity to perform our judo skills and meet our friends, and once again to spend time in close communication is also an opportunity to further improve friendships and mutual understanding of Judo for those judokas, who started their path on the tatami and continued it in other spheres of activities but who carry the spirit of Judo throughout their lives.

I sincerely wish all the participants and spectators strong health, success and happiness!

Ronnie Saez
Chairman
British Judo Association

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure to wish you a warm welcome on behalf of the British Judo Association to the Veteran European Championships in Glasgow.

We have a strong history of delivering high quality EJU events in Scotland and, as the Chair of British Judo's Veterans Commission, I look forward to welcoming international veteran athletes back to the UK.

British Judo and Glasgow will play host to several international events in 2018 including the return of a European Open for both men and women, after the successful delivery of the 2017 edition in Belgrade, Serbia.

I would like to thank the EJU for their continued support and trust in our ability to deliver this event to their high standards which we aim to exceed.

As a proud Glaswegian, I hope you enjoy your time in the City and I wish you all the best of luck for the event.
