The IJF World Judo Tour returns to Budapest for the first time since the hugely successful 2017 World Championships in the Hungarian capital.

Following on from a spectacular seven-day event in the home city of the IJF Presidential Office, the World Judo Tour returns to Budapest for the resumption of Hungary's Grand Prix competition.

The Olympic qualification runs from May 2018 to Tokyo 2020 and the Budapest Grand Prix 2018 will be a key stop on the road to Japan.

The Hungarian Judo Association is among the most respected and hard-working national federations in our sport and works meticulously with the International Judo Federation for such events.

I also wish good luck to the organising team and all the coaches, athletes, officials and volunteers.

Mr. Marius L. Vizer

President

International Judo Federation

10-12 August 2018

Dear Judo Friends!

Let me welcome everyone in the Budapest Grand Prix 2018 on behalf of the Hungarian Judo Association. It is an honour and privilege to be given the opportunity to organize the opening event of the 2020 Olympic Games qualification period!

The Hungarian judo achieved various successes in the past few years, having our competitors won numerous medals in the World and European Championships, throughout almost all of the age categories, moreover we have gained a lot of experiences in organisation of competitions such as the Suzuki World Judo Championships 2017 which was simply top regarding technical and organisation solutions according to the IJF and other officials.

Our performance at the EYOF was also outstanding, 11 gold, 9 silver and 14 bronze medals were won by the Hungarian cadets.

Last year we were glad to host the Ordinary Congress of the International Judo Federation and we organized one of the most important sports event of Hungary, the Individual and Team Senior World Championships.

Due to our successes a Sports Developing Program has started in 2013 between the Hungarian Government and the Hungarian Judo Association, bearing a significant support to our sport. I hope that all of the participants and visitors will be able to notice the development of the Hungarian judo year after year at the Budapest Grand Prix 2018.

I wish a memorable and very spectacular competition and all the best to the participants!

Dr. László TOTH

President
Hungarian Judo Association
