

EJU JUDO FESTIVAL 2024

Poreč – Croatia

June 10-26, 2024

This year's EJU Judo Festival program, running from June 10 to June 26, will feature seven events catering to a diverse range of participants, from Olympians and top judo competitors to children and judokas of all skill levels. With a focus on the latest scientific findings and practical knowledge, the festival promises to be a unique event, bringing together the expansive judo community and offering enriching content for all. Additionally, the festival will feature the “Judo - More than Sport: Project Showcase and Networking Event,” providing a platform for judo clubs and project managers to present innovative judo-related projects.

20 – 21 June - Scientific & Professional Conference – " Applicable Research in Judo"

The conference is conceived as an international meeting of Judo experts in all fields (scientific and professional). Any judo coach, expert, or researcher involved in Judo may submit a proposed contribution for consideration.

22 June - Judo - More than Sport: Project Showcase and Networking Event

The “Judo - More than Sport: Project Showcase and Networking Event” offers a unique platform for judo clubs and project managers to present their innovative judo-related projects. Attendees can expect an engaging environment where they can explore diverse initiatives aimed at enhancing judo's impact on society, health, and education. This event will not only spotlight pioneering projects but also facilitate invaluable networking opportunities, fostering collaborations that extend beyond the tatami. Join us to discover how judo transcends sport and contributes to community development and individual growth.

22 June - Safe-Fall Workshop

Discover Safe Fall-Safe Schools at the EJU Judo Festival in Poreč. Improve your knowledge of Ukemis and learn safe fall techniques in the school context in a practical workshop. Explore strategies to promote safe environments and prevent accidents. We present practical tools for teachers and Judo coaches. An essential event for the Judo community.

22 – 26 June - Kids & Family Camp

The Judo Festival offers a fantastic opportunity for families to enjoy five days dedicated to judo. Alongside judo training sessions for children and parents, there will be a range of workshops tailored to children's ages. Renowned head coach Nuno Delgado will be leading the sessions, ensuring top-quality training. Additionally, we will provide a side activity - a STEM workshop for kids.

23 – 25 June - Adapted Judo Camp

The Adapted Judo Camp is designed for judokas of all ability levels. Training sessions will be led by experienced coaches specializing in working with judokas with disabilities - Tycho van der Werff and Tomas Rundqvist. This camp offers a perfect opportunity for socializing and progress for judokas with disabilities in an international environment.
